Cement tiles, made by hand in Tétouan

We make hydraulic cement tiles in Tétouan, in the north of Morocco. Each tile is poured by hand into a brass mould, pressed, and left to cure for 28 days. The tiles are not fired and not glazed.

This catalogue shows 304 designs: 266 field tiles and 38 border and corner pieces, all 20 × 20 cm. Any design can be made in other colours, matched to a Pantone reference, a paint chip or a sample you send us.

Every photo is of a real tile from our production. Hand-poured tiles vary a little in tone from one tile to the next, and screens and printers shift colour. Order samples before you specify.
